

WHIG ADVOCATE.
CANTON, MISS.

FOR PRESIDENT,
HENRY CLAY, of Ky.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JOHN TYLER, of Va.
Subject to the decision of a National Convention.

The proprietors of the Advocate, when they purchased the office of the Canton Herald, thought all that was due that office for subscription for the third volume of that paper, which volume commenced on the 23rd day of May 1839. The patrons of the Herald, who have not paid in advance for that paper, will be charged on our books for their subscription, from the 23rd day of May last.

We publish to-day, to the exclusion of every thing else, the Speech of Mr. Clay, and we hope that all our readers will give it an attentive perusal.

We tender our thanks to the Hon. John C. Calhoun and Hon. Thos. J. Ward, for several public documents.

The report of the death of Rev. Henry Basson, the celebrated Methodist Divine, which has been going the rounds of the papers, proves to have been untrue, and without foundation.

A Mr. Leggett, sheriff of Choctaw county, in this State, has demanded for Texas, or some other land of freedom, with about $13,000 collected in his official capacity. If this "Treasury" should continue much longer we can entertain but little doubt of the triumph of whig principles in our State.

The Whigs of Vicksburg have caused to be printed two thousand copies of the Hon. S. S. Prentiss' Speech on Defalcations, for distribution in the State. This is right, let the people have light and there will be no danger of their doing wrong.

We learn that the investigating Committee have returned to Washington City from New York.

We also learn that the Committee, while in New York, did not confine their investigation to the Swartout and other defalcations—but that they called witnesses to learn the amount of funds, expended by different office-holders in elections for party purposes. Although every candid man must admit that this was legitimate within their province, and should have been looked into, yet there are some Van Buren presses so lost to shame and to purity of purpose, that they have not hesitated to call down upon the Committee the heaviest denunciations.

Their right to investigate such abuses seems now so apparent, that we would hold it absurd in the extreme—that it would be as foolish as attempting to controvert a self-evident fact by argument—as to attempt to prove that our government has lost original purity and brightness, when a portion of the salaries of public officers are required by government to be used for electing party purposes.
